The Prize Closet Map

For everything you didn't choose and can't quite throw out. Four doors, no trash can.

Pick the door first

Work down the list. The first yes is your answer, so you don't have to keep deciding.

The right person 1

Does one specific face come to mind the second you look at it? Send it to them. That's the whole test.

The closet 2

Still new in its packaging and giftable? Shelf it. The next birthday that sneaks up on you is already handled.

Donate 3

Nobody obvious, but somebody out there can use it? It goes to them instead of sitting here another year.

Sell 4

You want it gone and it holds real value? List it. Once it's yours, it's yours to pass on.

What's in there right now

One line per thing. Writing it down is what gets it out the door.
